THE TRAMP OF MARCHING FEET----

The 1946 Yellow Jacket

Annual Publication of Denison Senior High School

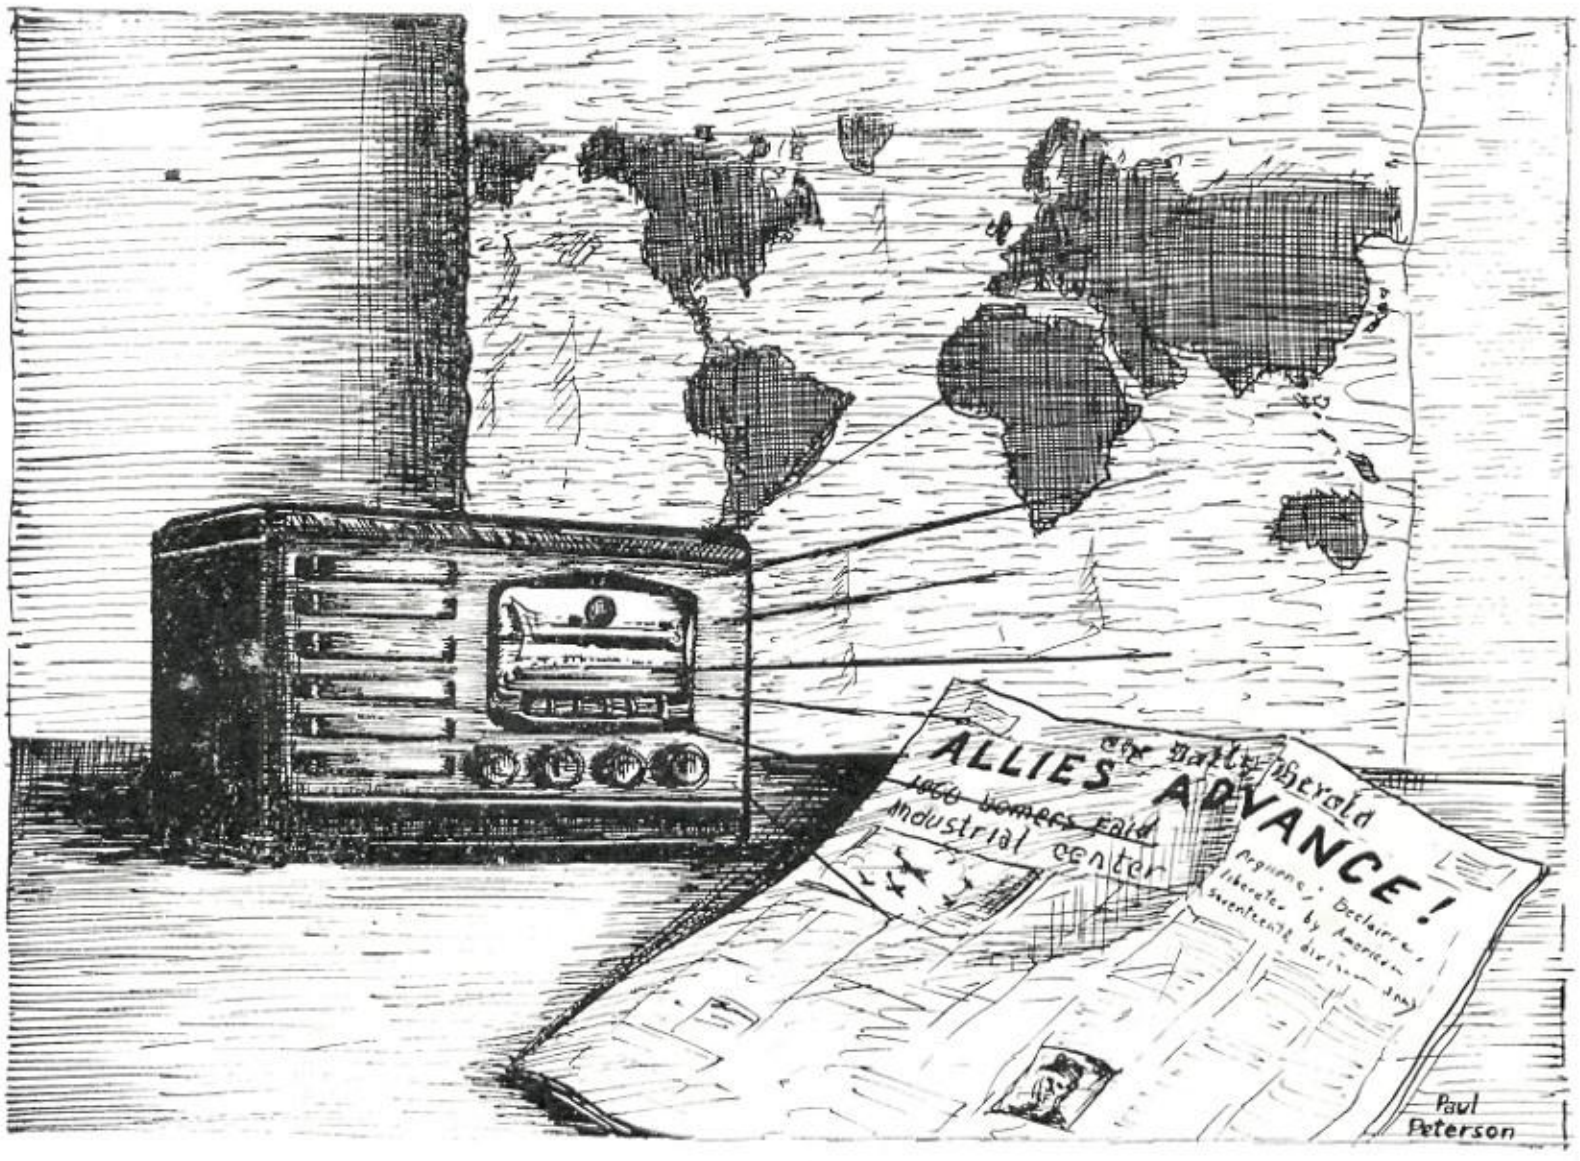
Denison, Texas



In this, the 1946 edition of the YELLOW JACKET, we are endeavoring to preserve the atmosphere, traditions, and memories of our high school.

In the years to come we hope that it will keep fresh in your mind those cherished memories of the good time you had at D. H. S.

We, the staff, hope that you enjoy owning the YELLOW JACKET as much as we have enjoyed making it for you.

Lora Lee Turner

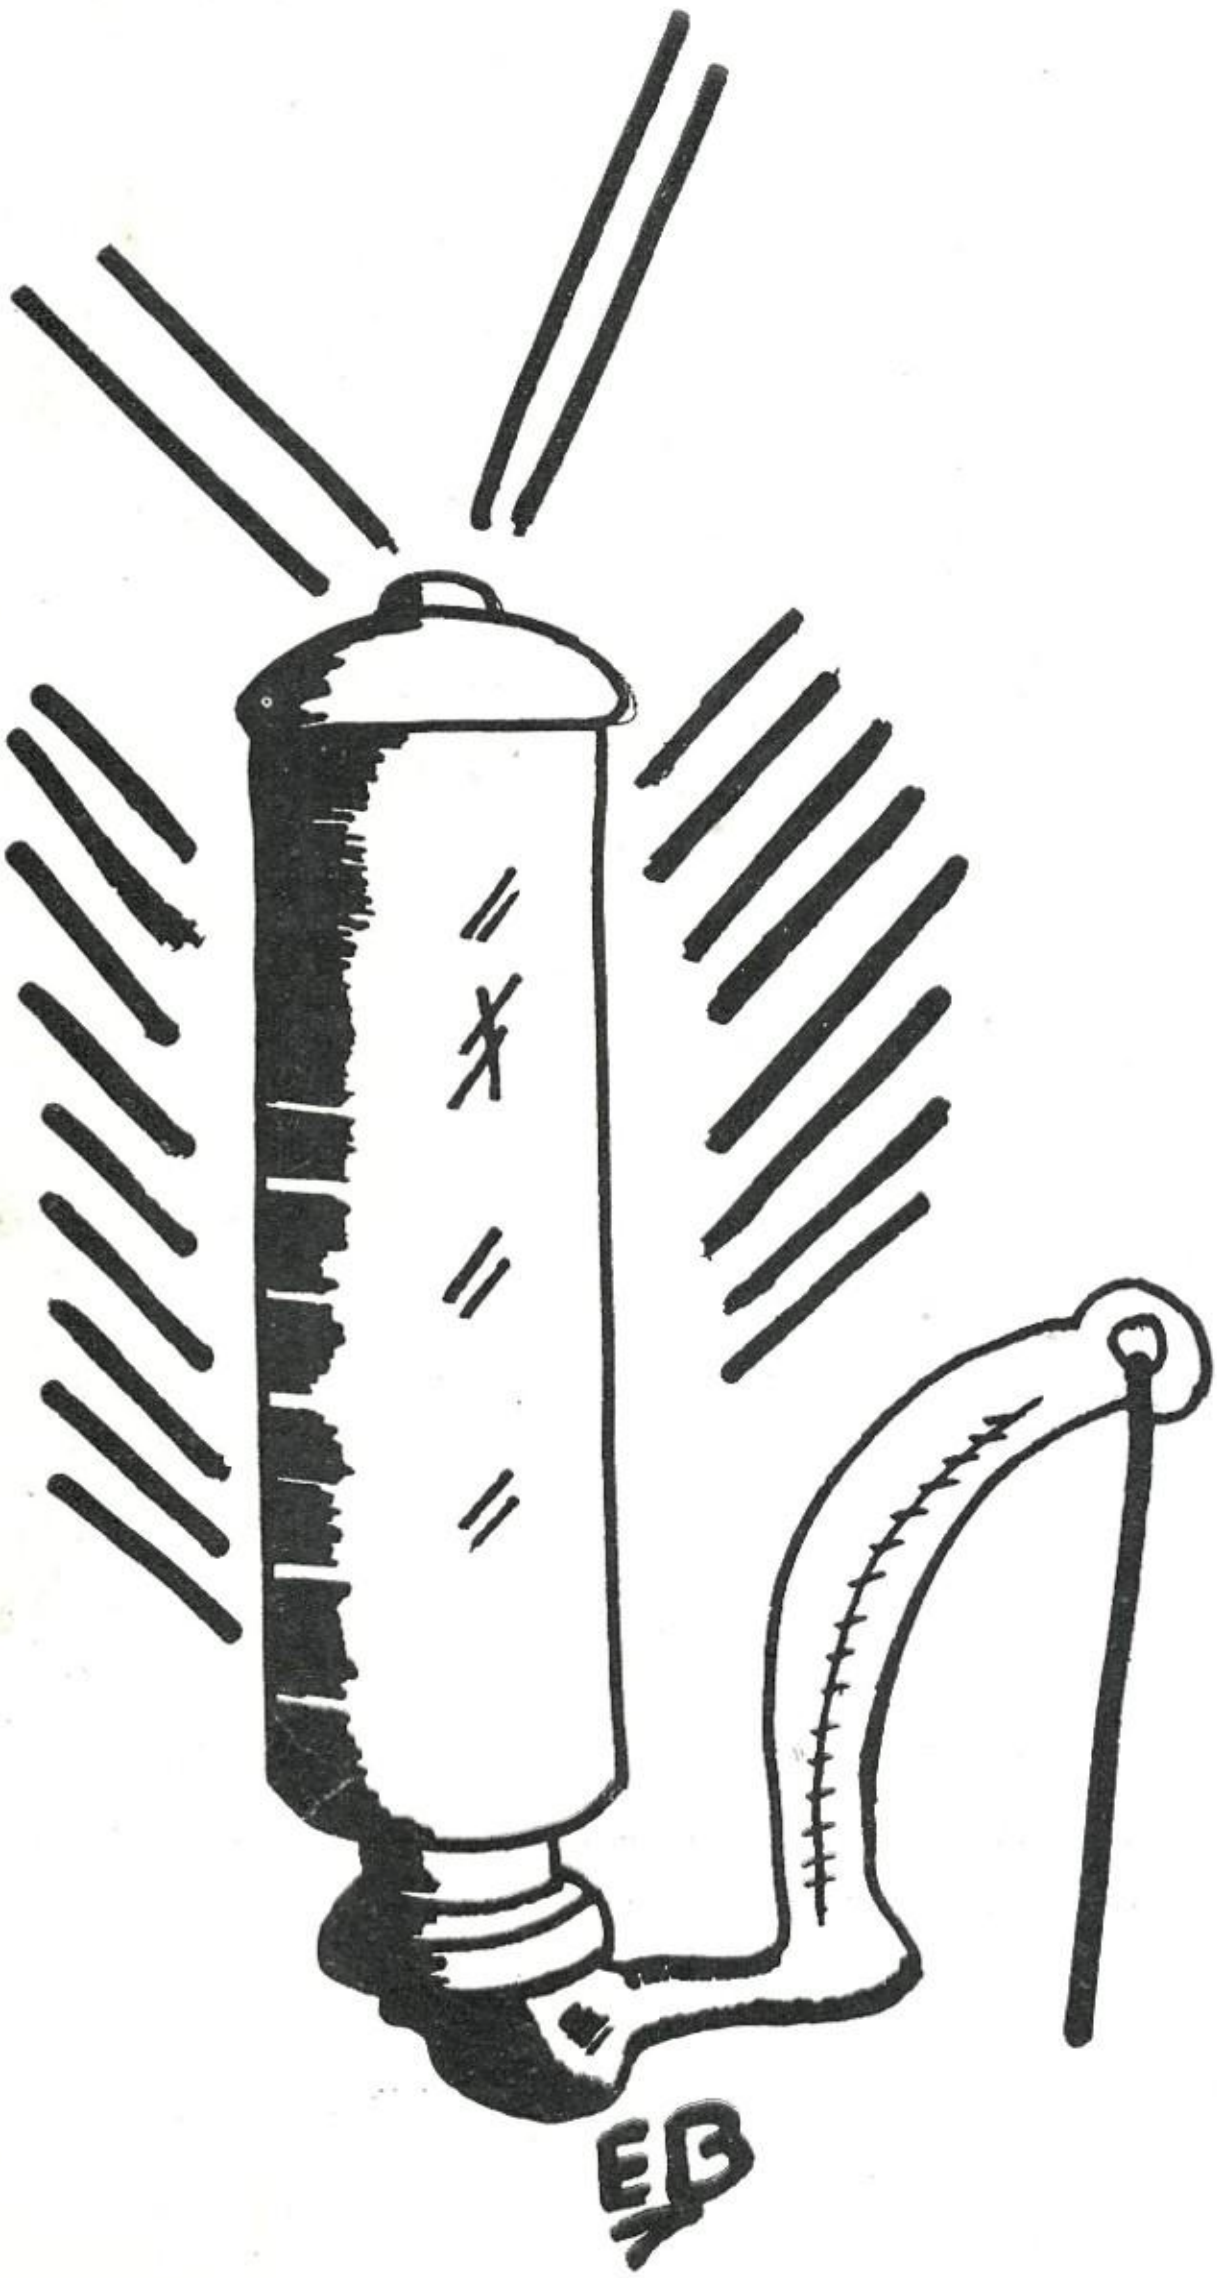
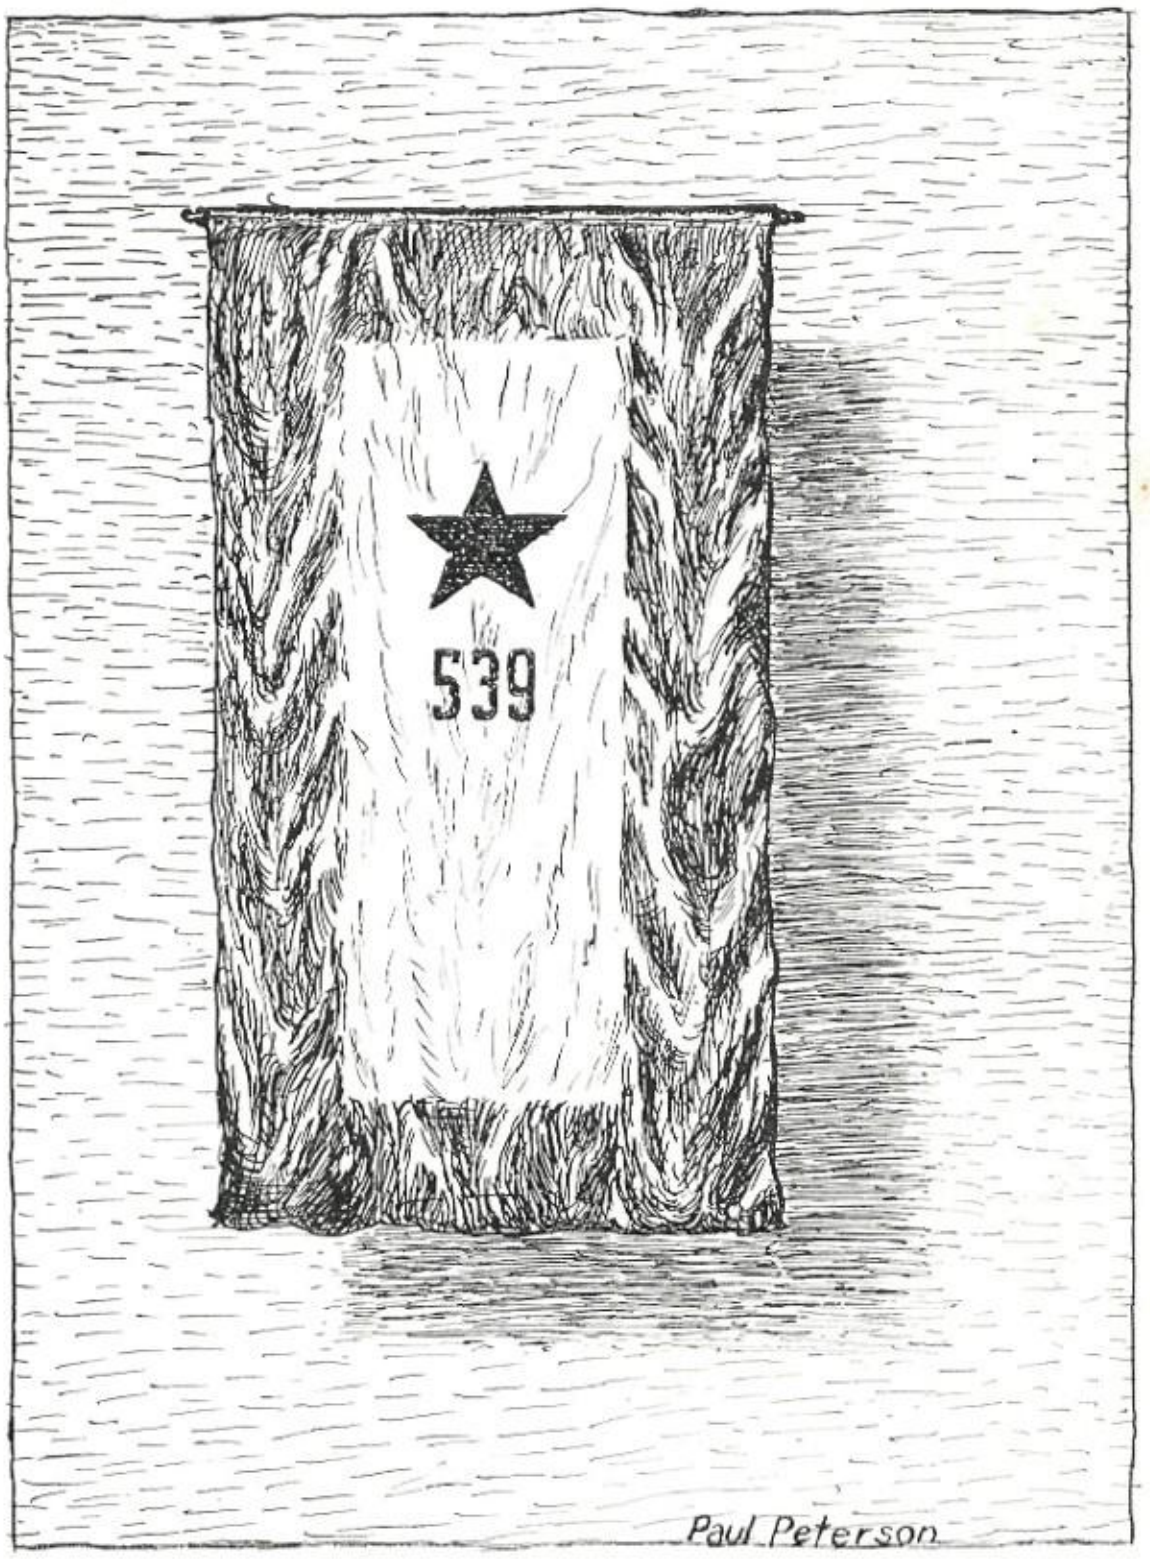
AND NOW -- PEACE IN OUR TIME





Dedication

To the men that made it possible.

SUPERINTENDENT B. McDANIEL

You are leaving high school to face the most perplexing situation of many generations. Each country and the whole world are in an unsettled condition. Your generation must bring order out of chaos. Whether you continue your education in college or enter at once into your chosen vocation, you will meet a real challenge. This challenge will require the best in you. You can meet it, and you can win. To win you must have a plan just as a builder has a plan. Your plan must be a long range one. Into this plan you must weave your ideals of handwork, fair play, duty to your job and to your employer, loyalty in all things, service to your fellow man and the highest ideals of Christian citizenship. All these, plus a healthy body, will make of you a successful and well-rounded citizen.

Faculty

PRINCIPAL J. L. DICKSON

In order for a democratic society to survive, each individual must strive to develop his capacities to the utmost and, at the same time, work in harmony with his fellow men for the common good of all.

Now that the Victory is won, it is the task of your generation to carry on the undimmed torch of American liberty and independence.

It is the duty and privilege of all young Americans to do their best to retain and improve our democratic principles so that you may live a richer life for yourselves and your community.

Sincerely,

J. L. Dickson

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1946, being of sound minds (we keep telling ourselves) do of our own accord hereby will and bequeath the following, to wit!

Jap Dinwiddie wants to leave some of the surplus brawn and brain to Lee Sturidvant who needs both. Pearl Davey wills some of the sweet temperament that she's noted for to Betty Ann Denington, and Jay Ronald Kidd, the local yokel whose no square from Delaware, leaves his vast ability to make with the jive talk to all the gals to Clarence Cline who gets around himself.

Jane Ware, better known as "Janebert" to "us gals," wills some of her fondness of the Denison Funeral Home (must be the friendly service) (plug) to Theda Jo Cody who kind of likes the place herself. Charley Beggs leaves some of his sparkling wit (he uses Pepsodent) and magnetic personality to Tommy Loy. (If no one can find me after this annual goes out, please look for me in the elevator shafts at the Denison Hotel).

Joyce Newland wills some of that winning and very charming smile to Betty Morgan, and Rudolph Winchester leaves some of his determination to overcome the hardships and stormy trials that he barely survived in American History Class to Bobby Oram who will soon be losing some sleep over it himself. Lora Lee Turner, Shirley Singleton, Dean Cox, and Mavorinee Ward bequeath all of their out-of-town football players to whatever junior girls are smart enough to vamp them away .. . (are ya listin'?)

Jack "Caladonia" Calhoun and Donald "Wheaties" McBee want to pass on some of their ability to look witty and charming in class and at the same time knock off an hour's sleep to Bob Rylee and Clifford Noe who don't exactly have to take sleeping tablets now. Patsy Bennett, Lila Brooks, and Faye Brown will their silver wings, filed letters, and overseas stamps to Elizabeth Lyon, Billie Mills, and Dorothy Braswell. Almeda Coleman leaves her Aggie pins (who needs those when she's got that ring on her finger?) to Virginia Pitcock. (Hubba, Hubba).

Jean Willoughby passes on her cheer leader sweater to Madeline Foster who looks good in one too. (Wolf, hubba, etc.,) David Thomas regretfully wills some of that fabulous record collection (who needs records when you've got an IQ like that?) to Word Burtis who already has everything from "Tippin' In to Clair de Lune" (swoon). Then there's Patsy Lou Simpson who's a slick chick who leaves some of that laughable, lovable personality that she has plenty of to Orbie Fudge who hardly needs it. J. C. Myers, an all reet guy, leaves his tact with the female species to Bob Noe.

Sue Lewis, Miss Beck's private little Michaleanglo, leaves her artistic talents to Anne Sproule, and Frank Furlow wills his size 14 shoes to anyone who is seriously affected by the housing shortage. Virginia Simms will keep her love for Gobs, thanks, but she'll be generous and will Wanda Parks a little of it. Jack Fawcett wills his handsome chassis and place as football idol to Corky Bowling who will probably live up to the name. Pat Moore passes on her genuine Girl Reserve spirit and the place as author of "Teen Talk" to any one who is as talented as she.

Billy Joe "Owl" Shields leaves reluctantly his favorite seat in 217 and many hours of idylls to anyone who's dumb enough to take it. Jean Radebaugh and Wanda Murray will their sense of humor and friendliness to Jerry Jackson and Pat Tierney. Glen Neidert and Eugene Barnes need the originals, but will leave carbon copies of their Sherman address books, of which they take advantage so often, to Bobby Rich and Billy Essary who will use them likewise. . . .

Wanda Bolin wants to leave . . . with Jack Hicks, and who can blame her? and Jack? Well, it's likewise. Louise Greenwood wants back all the hair she pulled out over shorthand and she'll gladly BUT gladly leave it to Joyce Buchanan who will undoubtedly think it is a snap. (Oh the horrors of it all). Charles Grove is passing on the gavel and many headaches, that come with being president of Hi-Y, to Brooks Williford. Billie Haynie and Tommie Kinney will their very red tresses to anyone who deserves such a virtue and on whom it would look as neat, they're all reet ! ! Louise Worbes and Bobbie Lou Pearson want to will all of their high shorthand grades to Thelma Lee Thornton and Rosemary Jones who will be glad they've got them. . . .

James Dalton wishes to leave all the discarded auto parts and black grease that came his way in taking P.T.C.T. (and in case you're wondering, that's Part Time Co-op) (see?) to anyone who's a square enough to want it. Martha Williams will leave some of that wonderful ability to understand Shakespeare's gib talk (To be or not to be, that's no question ! !) to Betty Wall who's brilliant too. Jack Mosely wills all the carbonated water, soda straws, and what not he's contacted, to Edna Ferguson, who has enough already, so she'll probably pass them on to any old jerk from Aubuquerque. Donna Annette (ha, told it and I'm glad, I'm glad ! !) Burrows wants to will some of that excess get-up-and-go energy and a little of her rugged individualism to Charlete Covington who's all right without it.

Billy Boyer wants to leave D.H.S. to anyone who wants to stay here as long as he has (he gets his old age pension next month), and Bradford Mott doesn't especially want to leave anything . . . what he's got nobody wants, (akoy, okay stop twisting my arm, we'll take it). Doroteha Alice /Johnson wills some of that lovely voice and sweet personality to Joan Abrahamson, and on her it looks good. Just give Mac Thomas one more year in band and he'll go? . . . George Mosse leaves his ability for composing poetry and drawing cartoons of er-uh, various and sundry objects, to Elmer Little and Oscar Landmon. Ewell Brigham and Betty Dutton are going to leave all the gay happy hours they spent in band and their musical talents to Jimmie Thornton and Anita La Londe. James Allison leaves all his 10's in deportment to Wilburn Coffin who will need 'em.

Tommy Little, our gallant, trustworthy, well-poised cheer leader, and man about town, will leave his pamphlet "How To Be Repulsive and Obnoxious With Girls in Ten Easy Lessons," to John Christman who has written one himself. Herman Crews will pass on some of those bright shirts he blooms out to Roy Jackson, and then Charlie Jackson has so many honors and virtues, who could say about him? He's got enough good things to pass around to everyone. There's plenty of 'em. All we can say is "Nice work Charlie." Guy Newman will leave some of those football awards and the glamour that comes with being one of the joy-boys of D.H.S. to Carl Ray Hill.

Recia Jo Pace and Lluttie Belle Russell will their uniforms and torn ticket stubs to anyone who likes picture shows. Wanda Fuller and Mary Frances Gaines will leave the laughs, giggles, and good times they had in history class to Elizabeth Ann Garrison and Marjorie Bridgefarmer. Vernon Droegemeir and Bobby Crout will some of the old tin and burnt fuses they contacted in the electrical business to anybody who would want a large charge. Betty Lou Bassham, a gal who's got more personality hidden than anyone I know, bequeaths some of that dry wit and witty charm to Virginia Hollowell. Bill Rylee is going to will all the grease paint and discarded play scripts to Bill Jacobs who is pretty much of a Barrymore anyway. Henry Davis, Edwin Lyons, and Dickie Thomas, three of our big husky Jackets, leave their ability to be top ranking lettermen to Jimmy Pogue, John Hicks, and John Rutledge. Billie Medlin will leave her vacated assistant drum major uniform to Marion Wilson, and Patsy McCarley wills all those bangle bracelets to Lois Buford who would look good with them on too. Ralph Mulligan and Raymond Myers bequeath some of those airplane models that they slave hours over and all those real plane rides to persons yet unknown.

SUMMARY

The Jackets played a tough schedule in 1945, and finished the season in a blaze of glory by defeating our arch rivals, the Sherman High Bearcats in Sherman. Such a feat never before had been accomplished by a Denison High School football team. With our victory over the Bearcats, the Jackets earned second place in District 5-AA. We are also proud of the good fight the team put up against the powerful Waco Tigers, who finished their season as a co-champion of AA football in Texas. On numerous occasions the Jackets were compelled to play against heavier teams, a great disadvantage, however, the team made up for lack of weight in speed, skill, and the display of fighting spirit. Arnold Johnson carried the entire coaching burden last season, and his work with the boys was magnificent. The entire school wishes to thank Coach Johnson, Co-captains Bob Garner and Charlie Jackson (both members of the mythical All-District team) and every other member of the Jackets for giving us a season that will long be remembered as outstanding for Denison High School.

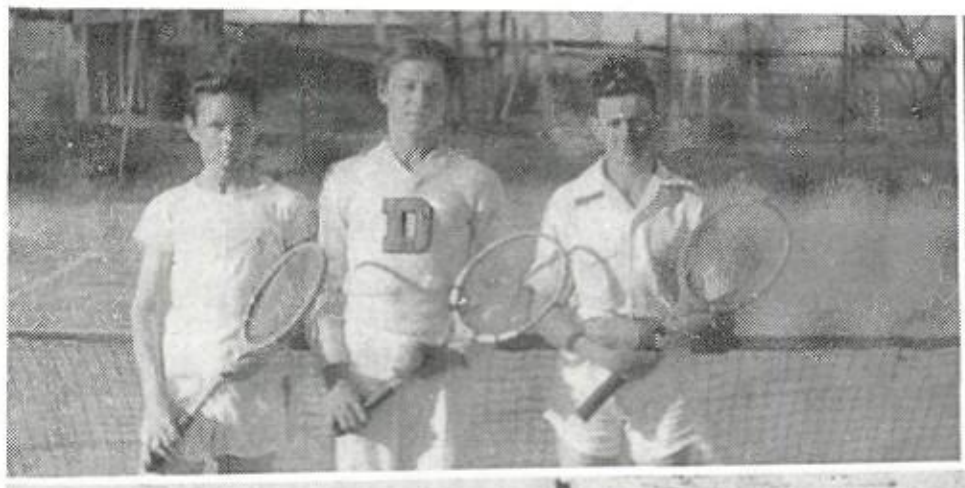
Tennis



Tennis Summary

The Yellow Jacket tennis boys had a good season. Brooks Williford was undefeated in singles until he lost in the final to Highland Park at the District Meet in Denton. He is a junior and is the only letterman on the team. Glenn Land and Bill Linden played doubles. These boys were defeated in District play by Highland Park. Land and Linden worked hard all the year and should win some matches for the school next year. Other boys who played on the squad were Dick Wood, Word Burtis, Tommy Loy, Carl Waltz, and Pat Hughes. Practice matches were played against Sherman, Bonham, and Sulphur Springs. Scheduled matches against Highland Park, Sunset of Dallas, and Paris were prevented by rains. Mr. M. M. Marshall, Coach.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

The outstanding game from the point of view of the Denison fans was the victory in our gym over the Sherman Bearcats, who up to that night were very much in the running for the title in District 5-AA Basketball. This loss ruined the Bearcat's chances of being "king-pin". The team practiced long and hard and played the game fair and square, however, the boys encountered several difficulties during the season, not the least of which was Marcus Frieberger, six-foot nine-inch All State forward from Greenville, the District Champs. He always was able to ring up a large score regardless of the opposition.

Coach "Rack" Golding worked tirelessly with the team and should be given credit for the fine showings that the Jackets made, whether they won or lost. Next year all the lettermen and squadmen are eligible to return to the "maple" and should give the school and the town a team that we will really be proud of.

ACTIVITIES

Enthusiasm is high in this year's club, with membership the highest in a long time. Last October, the North Texas Area Conference was held in Sherman; with Hi-Y Clubs from all this area attending. Our Father and Son Banquet was held at the Waples Church on the twenty-fifth of March; eighty-five were present. From April 12 to 14 the Older Boys Conference of the Hi-Y was held in Wichita Falls, a large group from our club made the trip. Next year with conditions back to normal, the Denison Hi-Y Club plans even larger activities and an increased membership.

Our chapter was organized on October 10, 1944, with a membership of twenty-six. At present we are affiliated with the state club and receive copies of the Pan Am Times, the official publication each month. At the State Meet last April our team in the Information Please Contest tied with two other teams for first place. Joye McHorse won third-place in the piano solo division. On April 26 and 27, we sent a large delegation to the state meet in Austin. Representatives from our club entered the Information Please, piano solo, extemporaneous speaking, essay, and vocal ensemble contests. During this year we have had several guest speakers, all of whom gave us very informative talks on their respective fields. Sgt. Earl Thurman discussed the Philippine Islands and their inhabitants, Lt. (jg) Milo Cox characterized the Caribbean Area, Marine Corps Pilot Ray Schiflett elaborated on the natives of the South-West Pacific, Mrs. Carl Lehenert presented to the club a series of very colorful slides on the Grand Canyon, and a representative of the Mexican Government gave us many interesting facts about conditions in Mexico and Spain. These talks have helped us understand the peoples of Latin America and related areas better and have contributed greatly to our efforts of cementing our relations and creating good will with the other countries of the Americas.

Dan Looney and Everett Hodges, men who just have to be looked up to, leave a little of that secret of how to have six-foot torsos to Perry Ooten and Lyndell Hicks, while Doris Anne Hauser wills her never-ending wardrobe and her stick-ability for real honest to goodness friendship with Nellwyn Glover and Bobette Milam to Frances Swink and Patsy Hunt, who keep well together. Ruth Flack and Carlisle Bailey will their lettered jackets with all the out-of-town boys' names on them to anyone who would not be dumb enough to refuse them (Hmmmmmmm, who would? Wait, me first ! ! !).

Cozette Webb, Merine Sikes, and Ollie Jo Ponder are leaving all the chalk dust, ink blotters, and discarded notebooks to any junior who hasn't enough already. Bill Wingo and Robert Wingfield (shy guys wid de gals) will some of their aloof but wistful good looking personalites to Alvin Parker and Sam Young, while Margaret Pugh, Elsie Kirschner, and Thelma Page, three of the quieter, but very nice members of our class, will some of their poise and sweet nature to Betty Johnson, Dorothy Newcomb, and Betty Tom Kimble. Lydia Badgett, Betty Bradford, and Edith Galyon, all good looking gals, just want to leave some of their success secrets on how to win friends and influence people to everyone, and then Gene Bush and Homer Wright, who are training to be country gentlemen, leave their love of chickens, pigs, and cows to whoever takes FFA next year. Freddie Herriage is not being so generous with his virtures. Bob Garner and Joe Little Pearce bequeath their ability to make the females swoon to J. B. Tucker and Clifton Jacobs, (Oh you men, YOU ! ! !).

Nelda Powell and Jimmie Bell Garner don't want to leave anything, in fact, they want something, and that's a little height, because they get cricks in their necks looking up to see whom they're talking to. Bill Dodson and Clinton Fisher leave some of their Puerse and Poisonality to (wait now let me consider, do these guys really deserve such a fate?) none other than James Noel and Bill Jones. Bettye Hamilton and Betty McCurdy bequeath their bee-utiful naturally curly locks to Wanda Milburn and Mary Edna Clark, who don't need them. . . .

Doris "Slats" Traweek leaves her brass drum to anyone who takes enough vitamins and eats enough wheaties to support it. Dale Wineineger leaves half of his confusin' twinship to Carolyn or Marilyn Kalb, either one that will take it. William Schirmer just left, Uncle Sam intervened, and Johnny "Jodie man" Hodge is finding out it is true what they say about the Navy. . . . (Hands off gals, he's posted property). (Yep, you guessed it).

Rose Mary Simms leaves her beautiful verse (dat goil sings jis lak a boid) to Alice Jane Dewees. Paul Lacy just is hoping against hope that he leaves D.H.S. Wayne Shone leaves his boots and saddle to any other Ashburn cow poke who wants them. Wanda Overton wills the Post Office business in the drug store to Martha Maynard who thinks glue tastes awful too. Doris Jean Woods leaves her broken down slush pump (that's a clarinet to you) to any on coming Freshman band members (I hope they're insured) Rudolph Guilloud wills his Ipana smiles to Hershel Hogenson, and Doris Ruddell doesn't want to leave anything, she's taking him with her. Norma Wilhelm leaves D.H.S. and burns her bridges behind her.

Emma Jean Wright and Billy Hester leaves with all of the FFA boys sobbing their hearts out (OH, tear). W. M. Lynch, long gone now, so we'll wish him luck and success in his ministry. Patsy Fike bequeaths all the hours she toiled in making all the other cosmetology students beautiful . . . She doesn't need anything (We lurve that gal). But to will some other-er-uh, person a little of that kind of life . . . Bobby Campbell bequeaths all the shoe leather and worn out bicycle tires he has used up totin' telegrams to the one other person who thinks that life can be beautiful. Billie Jean London wills all her pull in the office, all stamp pads, and energy for ringing the bell (ah, how we love that sound of chimes) to Ruby Nell Potts. Roger Daniel, everyone's buddy, leaves his recipe for laughing brown eyes and dark hair to Buddy Nevil, (and it looks good on him too). To any lucky junior girl, Anna Mae Manering wills her beautiful countenance and that loveable character, and Frances Martin, bequeaths her nice, warm, friendly (Yeah, I know my adjectives) grin to Lucille Fraley. Sue Erwin just wants to leave this institution. Rama Fawcett is so anxious to get out of here she'll just leave anything for compensation. Lewanna and Lorna Hardenburg are bequeathing all the fun and gay times they've had to Betty and Earline Hardenburg (in case you're wondering the relationship, it is cousins). Joe Don Young and Jackie Williamson leave reluctantly the FFA class (sob). Billie Gray and Beth Hilliard will all their old geometry notebooks and pencil stubs to Norma Jean Essary and Elizabeth Hodges (heaven help them). Carolyne Hibbitt passes on the trials and tribulations that come extra with being a preacher's daughter to somebody, wonder who? Leon Short, whose characteristics make him a swell guy, passes a few of his nice traits to Bobby Buck who is 99/ and 44/100% that way now. Don Stricklin, Ausber Reynolds, and Mitchell Perry, three lil' classmates who are little in stature but large in personality bequeath a bit of all that to three lil' juniors who we hope are as nice as these guys. Good looks must come with the name, at least it certainly worked for Charles Lewis and Earl Lewis. There's no relationship but together they're passing on some of their Alan Ladd glances to Charles Watson and Don Nichols.

Bill Hodgekinson, one of those lucky persons who has brown eyes and curly hair leaves a few of his characteristics to Teddy Ball who already has some of his own. Wanda Watson, Virginia Hair, and Norma Jean Shires are glad to leave, but they're willing their sentimentality about ye ole alma mater to all of the juniors who will feel the same way next year, and Jennie Mae Thomason leaves her place on the annual staff to someone else that can do as good a job as she has done. Betty Joyce Thomas vacates her office in the Syke and Circle Club for another talented person to take her capably filled position, and then J. W. Sweeney and Galen Irby will their red hair and freckles to just anyone. Elizabeth Short and Leta Scalf, two gals who credit our class, pass on their nice personalities to Pat Smith and Arlena Rae Cullar. Delores Redding and Mary Helen Norie both cute lil' gals, leave their many charms and friendliness to Elizabeth Fatin and Patsy Eyer. . . . . and Joyce, "short stuff", Ireland wills some of her darling antics and witty character to Doris Fawcett who's that way too. Lindy Montgomery and Terrell Seale just leave with no regrets.

Lloyd Nelms wills that marvelous physique to Donald Cook, and Lena Jo Myers, the quiet gal with the beguiling smile, leaves her love for Austin College to Ruth Hosford (Wonder if she wants it?). If you see a cute guy walking around here with a grin a mile wide it's Jr. Wilson and he's bequeathing his secret of how to be happy and gay all the time to Enoch De Fratus.

And to all of the veterans who have come back to school, we, the senior class as a whole, say good luck now and always. . . . and as for me, well after this has been read, I'll just leave probably with armed guards in an armored tank, but when they bring me up before the judge I'll just say "Please sir, I meant no offense, the characters and names in that will were out of this world, and any resemblance to People living or dead was PURELY coincidental!!!!!

The shades were pulled just so,
The family had retired,
The parlor light burned low,
There came a sound from the sofa,
The clock was striking two
As Maviornee (Ward) slammed her text book
With a thankful, "Well, I'm through."

The moon was white,
The road was dark;
A perfect place
To stop and park.
I gave a sigh.
I gave a moan;
I cursed the fate—
I was alone.

I know she,
I love she,
For she would I die.
She told I
She love I
But damn she,
She lie.
